Hālau Hula Kalehuaki'eki'eika'iu ma Kīlauea, under the direction of kumu hula Ab Kawainohoikala'i Valencia, follows the traditions of his kumu, Auntie Mae Kamāmalu Klein of Kane'ohe, O'ahu. Their hula genealogy descends from Maiki Aiu Lake of Honolulu, O'ahu, Lokalia Montgomery of Kapahulu, O'ahu and Keahi Luahine of the island of Kaua'i.

Ab Kawainohoikala'i Valencia, born and raised in Honolulu, traces his 'ohana to the districts of North Hilo and Puna, Hawai'i. He combines the traditions of his 'ohana and teachings of hālau hula to share the Aloha of this special place: Ka lua o Pele i ka wahi kapu o Kīlauea, with hula kahiko and the styling's of hula 'auana.

There are many hula traditions and ways to study traditional hula. Hālau hula follows a path of learning and protocol that instills an understanding of the culture and its values, and imbues in the haumāna (student) an appreciation of the mana'o and aloha of our kūpuna who have shared their knowledge and wisdom so that the legacy of our culture may continue and thrive.

Come and enjoy a small sampling of the traditions of Hālau Hula Kalehuaki'eki'eika'iu ma Kīlauea that connects us back to our past and pays tribute to the people and places that we cherish. The evening begins with a vocal supplication for inspiration and grace — and unfolds in a presentation of “Hula as the Art of Hawaiian Dance.”

*Nā Leo Manu is part of 'Ike Hana No'eau, a series of Hawaiian cultural programs sponsored by Hawai'i Volcanoes National Park and Hawai'i Pacific Parks Association.
Park entrance fees may apply.*
